Committees Appointed For Senior Week End

Chairmen of the Commencement Week End have been appointed resulting from the meeting of the general committee Saturday morning, according to Miss Natalie Gould, chairman of the entire week end.

Donald E. Percy is general chairman for the Graduation Festival Friday, June 3, from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. Sub-

6 Committees Formed For Charity Drive; 19 Positions Available

For the first time on the Bowling Green campus, the Student Senate is providing for a new, integrated group of committees which will form the Campus Chest Drive Committee. Freshmen sophomores, and juniors of this year may apply for posts on the news, speaking, poster and center display, contact, and solicitation committees.

These committees will work in next fall's campaign and are open to five juniors, seven sophomores, and seven freshman representatives. Anyone interested in becoming active in student activities may pick up application blanks at the Senate desk in the Dean of Students Office. The blanks must be handed in by Friday, April 29, at 5 p.m.

Campus Chest Drive committee formerly was composed of two juniors, acting as co-chairmen, and two sophomores, sub-co-chairmen. This year, the committee used a new method of campaigning.

Instead of campaigning through Ugly Man and Woman contests and awarding trophies to individual groups working for a trophy, the committee tried to make the incentive come from within, so that the person could give money because he wanted to give. Because of this change, the committee, according to Bob Lauer, junior co-chairman, needed more committees established to do certain, specific jobs.

8 Cadets Receive Active Duty Orders

Eight AS IV cadets have received their orders for active duty, according to Lt. Col. Luther M. Bivins, professor of Air Science.

These eight men are: Mark Barnhill, Werner Freundlich, Donald R. Friar, James B. Melrose, William V. Mitchell, David W. Nichols, Ambrose J. Paridon, and Harry P. Thal. They will receive their Second Lt. commissions at the June commencement.

These men will undergo a short indoctrination period at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, before receiving assignment to Observer Schools. All men except Thal will report on Oct. 21. He will report on Nov. 4.

Orders for cadets going into pilot training are expected in the near future.

Outstanding Senior Named By Air ROTC

George Hill has been selected to receive the Air Force Association Silver Medal this spring as the outstanding senior Air Force ROTC cadet at Bowling Green State University.

The medal will be presented by "Toledo's own" Joe E. Brown as part of the program of the Air Force Association's state convention at the Secor Hotel in Toledo May 7 and 8.

The Air Force Association Silver Medal is presented annually to the top ranking cadet in each of the Air Force ROTC units in the country.

Allen Selected Soloist For Handel's 'Samson'

Warren S. Allen, associate professor music, has been selected as baritone soloist for the presentation of Handel's dramatic oratorio, "Samson," in Indianapolis, Ind., Sunday, April 24. Two performances will be given, one at 3 p.m. to one at 8:30 p.m., in Woodruff Place Baptist Church, with Bruce Tolbert directing. Mr. Tolbert was a member of the music faculty of the University here in 1951-52.

Mr. Allen sang the baritone role in Igor Stravinsky's dramatic oratorio, "Oedipus Rex," which the Toledo Orchestra presented in the Museum Peristyle April 7. Last December he was one of the soloists in the presentation of Handel's "The Messiah" on the campus.

General chairman for the President's Luncheon for members of the graduating class, their husbands and wives, is Lois Radomsky. The luncheon is to be held Saturday, June 4, at 11:30 a.m. Subcommittee chairmen are Pat Vietmeier, decorations; and Fran Miller, place cards and seating.

The President's reception for members of the graduating class and their parents will be Saturday, June 4, from 3 to 5 p.m. Sandra Traver will serve as general chairman for the reception, and Roger Kasten is in charge of decorations.

General chairman for General Hospitality is Harry Thal. Subcommittee chairmen are Gerald Murray, information and publicity; Marilyn Durnbaugh, hospitality for parents; Dick Humphrey, departmental and residential open houses; and Nancy Weatherston, housing and meal service for parents.

Approximately 25 members of the senior class will be chosen to serve on each committee. These persons will be notified in the near future.

Personal letters from the President inviting parents to the week end will be mailed Saturday.

Speech Society Group Initiates Six Women

Six women were initiated into Sigma Alpha Eta, national recognition society in speech correction and hearing Sunday, April 17. Miss Alice Greiner, adviser, announced.

The students are Joan E. Cogzins, Mary Ann Luedeke, Betty Jevnikar, Johanne Todd, Rosanne Elizabeth Niland, and Mary J. Williams, Miss Greiner said.

Mrs. Floris Arnold, a teacher of deaf children at the Kennedy School, Dayton, spoke at the initiation.

Patricia Carnes Grover, society president, and Alice Marlene Musser were in charge.

Auto Registration Fee Cut; Police Crack Down

Student auto registration fees have been cut in half for the remainder of the semester, William J. Rohrs, chief of University police, has announced.

The rates were reduced, he said, because only five weeks of school remain. Most students affected are those who brought cars back to the campus after spring vacation.

Fees are now $1 for students living at home and driving to school and $2.50 for resident students, Chief Rohrs said.

He warns students who have not registered their cars that the police are cracking down. Chief Rohrs stated that three students have been ticketed for non-registration since school resumed last week.

Fines for violations have not been reduced, he added.

News, Key Editors Named

BRAD GREENBERG

Greenberg, Gordon Appointed Editors Of News, Key

New editors and business managers for the Key and B-G News have been appointed by the Student Publications Committee, according to Dean Benjamin L. Pierce, president of the committee.

The new editors are James Gordon, Key, and Bradley Greenberg, B-G News. Business manager for the Key will be Francis Griffin, and for the B-G News Chester Arnold.

The students were chosen following interviews last Thursday. These interviews, their letters of application, and their previous experience in publications were the main basis for selection of the students.

Gordon and Greenberg are both juniors majoring in journalism. Gordon has served as photo editor of the B-G News and of the Key, and Greenberg has been issue editor of the News for the past year.

Griffin is also a junior journalism major. Arnold, a sophomore majoring in advertising, is currently advertising manager of the B-G News.

Francis Griffin

Janice Kelly

Janice Kelly, a junior personnel management major in the College of Business Administration, has been appointed by Gordon as managing editor for the Key. A new staff arrangement is being prepared by Gordon in consultation with Miss Kelly, who has served this year as an associate editor of the Key.

Additional staff members will be appointed by the editors.

University Sets New Cut System

The University policy for class attendance has been announced for the coming academic year.

No student has the privilege of class cuts. Only excused absences will be condoned by the University Administration, those which pass through the channels of the Dean of Students office.

Excused absences will, as before, be for serious emergencies, illness, death in the immediate family, and officially authorized University activities.

Excessive absence without excuse may result in the dropping of students from individual courses. If a student should cut over half the number of semester hours he is carrying and the required assemblies without valid excuses, he may be dropped from the University.

Before and after vacations unexcused absences will cost students $5 for each absence.

17 Editorial Posts Open On 1956 Key

About 17 editorial positions are open on the 1956 Key, Editor James R. Gordon has announced.

Two associate editors, one for copy and one for engraving, and assistant editors under them, will be selected, he said.

Assistant editors and the staff on the copy side will be in charge of such sections as faculty, administration, classes, Greeks, clubs, honoraries, sports, photography, art, and the scheduling of pictures, some writing, and research into the activities of each section.

Picture editing, cropping, scaling, paneling, mailing of photographs, all work connected with sending pictures to the engraver, and the preparation of a duplicate Key dummy, will be handled by the engraving staff and assistant editors.

Applications are available from the journalism secretary in 315 Administration Bldg. Deadline for applications is April 29.

Radomsky, Kasten Get Greek Prizes

Lois J. Radomsky and Roger N. Kasten were announced as the Outstanding Greek woman and man of 1954 at the respective banquets of Panhellenic Council and Interfraternity Council Thursday and Wednesday evenings.

Both were cited for their outstanding work with fraternal organizations by anonymous faculty committees who submitted the names in sealed envelopes to the President's office. The envelopes were not opened for announcement until the presentations were given at each banquet.

this year and has a record of sorority achievements since she pledged in the spring of 1952. She, furthermore, has presided over the Association of Women Students this year, in which she has actively participated throughout her four years at this University. Most important among her other campus offices include membership in Cap and Gown, Student Senate, Council on Student Affairs, and several University committees.

Helen Long, president of Delta Zeta sorority, presented the award, which is new this year. Delta Zeta sponsored the trophy which will rotate to the houses of the various winners in successive years. The sorority also presented Miss Radomsky with a personal gift.

Presents Trophy
Dr. Lloyd A. Helms announced the presentation of the rotating trophy to Kasten, who also received an individual cup. Kasten has presided over the Kappa Sigma fraternity this year, and has served as vice-president of Interfraternity Council both semesters. He has been an active member in the Kappa Sigma fraternity since the spring of 1952.

Among his many outstanding achievements at this University is the presidency of Omicron Delta Kappa, membership in Student Senate and the Council on Student Affairs, varsity debate team membership, and several University committees.

IFC Banquet
On Wednesday, the Interfraternity Banquet was held at the American Legion Hall, with Dr. Kleckner as speaker. The Outstanding Greek Award was presented, and IFC Service Keys were given to senior members of IFC. Eighteen men from each fraternity attended the banquet.

Donald Percy, president of IFC, was toastmaster. Invocation was given by Dr. L. A. Helms; welcome by James Pinnick, chairman of the banquet; and comments about Greek Week were given by Robert Smith, co-chairman. Dean Ralph G. Harshman introduced Dr. Kleckner who spoke on "Unity in Diversity." Merrill C. McEwen was song leader for the evening.

Project Award
Prof. Giles R. Floyd, president of the Wood County Interfraternity Club presented Delta Tau Delta with an award for the best public service project of the year.

Panhellenic Banquet was held Thursday at the Commons, and featured the Outstanding Greek Woman Award. Mrs. Marjorie Parker, counsel member at large of the Alpha Xi Delta national office, was speaker. The new representatives to the Panhellenic Council were introduced, and next year's officers were installed.

ODK To Hold Annual Leadership Conference

"Responsibilities of Campus Leadership" is the theme of panel and group discussions for the second annual all-day Leadership Conference on University Life, sponsored by the Omicron Delta Kappa, leadership honor society for men, at Lakeside on Lake Erie, Saturday, April 30.

Panel of students, members of the administration and faculty will participate in the discussions. A discussion of the "Responsibilities of Campus Leadership in Fostering a General Attitude to Encourage Scholarship," will be moderated by Robert L. Smith. Donald Packard will lead a group in the discussion of "Campus Leadership and Extramural Activities," and Roger N. Kasten will moderate a discussion of "Campus Leadership in Extracurricular Activities."

Purpose of the Conference is to bring students, faculty, and administration leaders together in "an environment suitable for a free exchange of ideas," according to John Peterson, chairman of the conference.

Those attending the Conference will leave Bowling Green at 8 a.m. and return at approximately 8:30 p.m. Some 60 faculty members and 80 students will attend. The faculty and the members of the administration were chosen by the Faculty Council and the students were chosen by the members of ODK.

New Date Set For Campus Elections

All-campus election for Student Senate, Class officers and May Court, originally scheduled for April 20, has been postponed until April 27, according to Ethel C. McMillan, chairman of the elections committee.

This change was made to give the Committee on Student Leadership and Service a better opportunity to interview candidates for Student Senate.

Petitions for class offices will be due 9 a.m. April 23. If the candidates wish to submit pictures for publicity purposes, they are due at 9 a.m. April 25.

Campaigning is to be conducted April 25 and 26 instead of the planned dates of April 18 and 19.

Miss McMillan urged that any students having questions concerning the elections should contact one of the members of the elections committee.

School Children Tested By University Students

University speech and hearing majors tested the hearing of approximately 300 elementary school children in Clyde recently, reported Dr. Melvin Hyman, director of the University's speech and hearing clinic.

Results of the testings are sent back to the schools, Dr. Hyman said. The school health nurse is responsible for following up the survey and seeing that steps are taken to correct any speech or hearing defects disclosed by the survey, he said.

Dr. Hyman stated that results of the tests are often used in PTA meetings to show the community the need for a speech therapist in the school system.

Students who conducted the survey were Patricia Carnes, William Loudenslager, Jeanne Greathouse, and Barbara Poole. Dr. Hyman was supervisor.

LONGWORTH TO CONVENTION
Prof. Donald S. Longworth of the sociology department was in Philadelphia this week attending the eighteenth annual Groves Conference on "Marriage and the Family."

Shakespeare's Lovers' Fantasy Opens

Three pairs of lovers, an angry father, a play within a play, and a mischievous sprite complicate the plot of William Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which opened last night in the main auditorium. The play will also be given at 8:15 p.m. tonight and tomorrow. Tickets may be obtained at the Gate Theatre box office from 10:30 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m. and in the Well from 7:30 p.m. to curtain time.

The comedy of love and errors is the "funniest and most fantastic of all Shakespeare's comedies," stated Dr. Elden T. Smith, chairman of the speech department, who is directing the production.

The tale begins to unfold when Egeus (William McIntire) complains to Theseus, Duke of Athens, (Alan Nichols) that his daughter Hermia (Juanita Baugh) refuses to marry Demetrius (Lynn Allen), the man her father has chosen. Theseus is planning his own marriage to Hippolyta, Queen of the Amazons, (Sally Kilmer) but informs Hermia she must marry Demetrius or else be condemned to death or forced to enter a convent.

Hermia loves Lysander (Dan Wawrzyniak) and the couple plans to elope. They confide in Helena (Carol Liedtke), who loves Demetrius and tells him of the plans. Demetrius follows Hermia and Lysander into the woods, and Helena tags after Demetrius.

In the woods is a mischievous sprite, Puck, (Anne Potoky) who serves Oberon, King of the Fairies, (James Rodgers). Oberon has quarreled with his Queen, Titania (Elaine Kelch).

A group of mechanicals enter the woods to rehearse a play to be performed for the Duke. These mechanicals add hilarious comedy to the plot, especially when Puck places an ass's head on the shoulders of Nick Bottom (Vince Tampio). The other mechanicals (Eugene Davis, Frank Glann, Fred Ashley, Victor Young, and James Liedtke) run from the woods in terror.

A merry mix-up follows when Puck places a love potion in the eyes of Titania and she falls in love with Bottom, ass's head and all. Puck also places the love potion in the eyes of both Lysander and Demetrius, and they both fall in love with Helena, and Hermia is left without a lover.

Finally, the charm on Titania is broken, Bottom's own head is restored, and the three pairs of lovers have a triple wedding. The mechanicals present their play, and the merry mix-up ends on a happy note.

News Wins Six Awards At OCNA Convention

Staff members of The B-G News returned to campus Sunday following the two-day Ohio College Newspaper Association Convention at Cincinnati bringing back six prizes, according to editor Gerald Murray.

The News was awarded third place in the contest for papers published twice weekly or more class. The Ohio State Lantern won first place and the Miami Student was second.

Prize Photos

In individual awards the Bowling Green group was awarded five prizes. James Gordon swept the photography awards from all the 28 college and university newspaper entrants. Gordon was awarded first place for the best news or feature photograph, and first and second for the best sports photographs.

Honorable Mention

An honorable mention was awarded Merlin Sous in the cartoon division, and Donald Hannah received an honorable mention for a feature article.

Approximately 140 college journalists attended the convention at the University of Cincinnati Friday and Saturday and participated in the panel discussions and general sessions.

Judge for the newspapers published more than once a week was Prof. Granville Price, chairman of journalism at the University of Idaho. He listed the outstanding qualities of The B-G News as superior typography and make-up, and rated sports writing, features, and editorials as good to excellent.

Bowling Green students attending the convention were Richard Budd, Nancy Campbell, Janet Crane, Patricia Guthman, Mary Humphries, Gerald Murray, and John Tite. They were accompanied by faculty adviser Robert A. Steffes.

Speech Day Hosts High School Seniors

About 25 Northwestern Ohio high school seniors will meet on the Bowling Green campus April 26 when Sigma Alpha Eta, recognition society in speech correction and hearing, sponsors its Speech Day, Miss Alice Greiner, society adviser, announced.

Plans have been made to have the visiting students observe classes in speech and hearing therapy. Faculty members will talk on field opportunities.

The high school students will also tour the campus, Miss Greiner said. Each senior will be assigned a University student as an escort during the day.

Gene Winters, vice-president of Sigma Alpha Eta, is general chairman of the Speech Day. Eugene Popielec is in charge of setting up schedules. Alice Musser, Lois Schoebel, and Joyce Duncan are in charge of advance publicity.

Greek Week

Tonight the annual Greek Week dance will feature a Big City theme, New York, New York, with the magic, mellow music of Buddy Morrow's orchestra serenading dancers in the Men's Gym from 9 to 1. Several motifs, Central Park, Rockefeller Center, and others, are included in the decorations. The program cover continues the theme, the interpretation furnished by artist Richard Shaw.

Monday evening exchange dinners started Greek Week officially on its way, with the sororities sending two representatives to each of the other houses, and the fraternities on the row, each paired with a fraternity off campus, exchanged 15 men. Discussions followed.

Tomorrow, separate sorority and fraternity functions are on the program, with many sorority-fraternity parties scheduled. Incidentally, the University production tomorrow evening, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," has its setting in ancient Greece.

Sing Sunday

On Sunday at 2:30 p.m., the Interfraternity Council Sing will be held in the Main Auditorium, and will feature the Big City theme. The backdrop, prepared by Gretchen Zwack pictures a large building with windows lighted from behind outlining the Greek letters of the participating fraternities. Permanent plaques will be given to the first, second, and third-place winners, and they will also receive rotating trophies. The song leader of the winning group will be given a permanent trophy.

ATO BANQUET

On Monday, April 25, five men will attend the Cleveland Alpha Tau Omega Alumni Banquet. They are: Peter Gatsos, Herb Barr, Dick Marshner, Ed Donnelly, and Stan Steed.

Student Papers, Banquet Marks Sixth Annual Chemical Meeting

More than 100 students and faculty members from 13 participating colleges and universities in Ohio and eastern Indiana attended the sixth annual Meeting-in-published twice weekly or oftener chapters of the American Chemical Society at the University April 15 and 16.

Original scientific papers were presented by students from Bowling Green, Kent State, Ohio Wesleyan, Dayton, Toledo, and Xavier universities, Wooster and Antioch colleges, and Case Institute of Technology. Other schools which were represented, according to W. Heinlen Hall, chairman of the chemistry department, are Cincinnati and Western Reserve universities, Heidelberg College, and Indiana Technical College.

A banquet Friday evening included a speech by Dr. Laurence L. Quill, head of the chemistry department at Michigan State College, titled "The Rare Earths."

Correction

A typographical error in the last issue of The B-G News omitted a faculty member's name from the Beta Gamma Sigma story. Lewis F. Manhart, associate professor of business administration, is a charter member of the national chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma, commerce honor society, which is being established on campus.

BG Graduate Plays 'The Moon' At Cornell

Dwight D. Rangeler will play the role of The Moon in Federico Gracia Lorca's "Blood Wedding" which will be presented by the Laboratory Players of Cornell University this week end. Rangeler, a member of the Cornell University Theatre Staff, received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Bowling Green.

While here, he was a member of Phi Delta Theta, Omicron Delta Kappa, Book and Motor, Sigma Tau Delta, and Theta Alpha Phi, and spent two seasons in summer stock with the Huron Playhouse.

Weatherston, Ezzone To Give Joint Recital

Nancy Ann Weatherston, soprano, and Nicholas Ezzone, pianist will present a joint senior recital Sunday at 3 p.m. in Studio B of the Practical Arts Bldg.

Elizabeth Pope will be Miss Weatherston's accompanist.

Selections by Miss Weatherston include The Little Shepherd's Song and I Hate Music—from a cycle of five kid songs.

Nicholas Ezzone's first selection will be Sarabande. He will close with the collection of Poems of the Sea.

Treble Clef Tours Eastern Ohio Region

The Treble Clef Club has recently completed a tour of Eastern Ohio, according to Dr. James P. Kennedy, director.

Leaving the University at 10 a.m. Sunday, April 17, the group of 50 traveled by Falcon bus to Willoughby where they ate lunch and sang at Andrew's School for Girls. That evening they performed at Kirtland in the High School.

Monday found the group lunching and presenting a concert at Ashtabula High School at one o'clock. The chorus concluded its tour with a concert in Conneaut High School 8:30 Monday night.

Official Announcements

Each freshman and sophomore in the College of Business Administration should make an appointment to meet his adviser to register for the fall semester. Advisers WILL NOT NOTIFY students of appointment times by letter, as has been the practice in the past. Instead, each student is to sign for a convenient date and time on his adviser's appointment sheet. Appointment sheets will be available April 22 through April 27 at the following locations:

Journalism students, Dept. Office, 315 A.

Secretarial students, Bus. Ed. Dept. Office, 303 P.A.

All other students, Bus. Adm. Dept. Office, 302A.

Registration will begin on April 28. Students are urged to register early to avoid difficulty in entering desired classes.

A student who is in doubt as to his adviser should see the list of students assigned to advisers at the above locations.

B. L. Pierce

Today and tomorrow are the last two days women living in Williams, Johnston, Ivy Residence Halls, Campus Cottage, and Cottages One and Two may sign up for rooms.

April 25 through 29, Kohl and Shatzel residents may sign up for on-campus accommodations.

From May 2 to May 4, off-campus students may sign up.

Men living in East and West Halls should sign up April 22 and 23. Falcon Hall and off-campus men should sign up April 25 to 28.

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors interested in working on next year's Campus Chest Drive Committee may pick up application blanks at the Senate desk in the Dean of Students Office. These applications will be reviewed for next fall's drive.

Education Members Attend OSU Meeting

Two University faculty members will appear on the program of the spring meeting of the Ohio Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development at Ohio State University April 23.

Dr. Winifred J. Conaway, assistant professor of education, will serve as a member of the afternoon panel which will be moderated by Dr. Dorothy McCuskey, professor of education. Dr. McCuskey is vice-president of the organization.

A number of members of the University staff and teachers from the city school system will also attend the meeting.

Falcons Split Openers With Wayne; Win Home Game, 5-4

BG Falter At Detroit; Drop Second Fray 8-3

By LES WAGNER

Bowling Green's diamond squad opened their season last Monday and unleashed a sudden burst of power in the late innings to cop a 5-4 win from Wayne University. The Detroit team returned the compliment the following day with a seven run eighth inning outburst to a split in the series, 8-3.

In the Falcon opener, the clutch hitting and relief chucking of southpaw Ted Johnson overshadowed the slugging of Fred Hansen and Dick Kenny.

The Wayne defense fell apart in the ninth to allow Bowling Green to score the tying and winning runs. Hansen, the left fielder, opened the inning with a hard ground ball that ricocheted off the shortstop's chest. A wild pitch brought him into scoring position.

Kenny blasted a hot one through the box to tie the score. A sacrifice placed him on second and brought Johnson up to the dish. The diminutive lefty connected with a high fastball from the tiring Clarence Straughn and sent a screaming line drive over the rightfielder's outstretched glove to climax the storybook finish.

Straughn pitched an excellent game until he weakened. He hurled a nine hitter and sloppy defense was responsible for some of the runs scored off him.

Wayne Scores First

Leadoff hitter Jack Snowden had opened the contest for Wayne with a walk. He dashed to third on an infield roller as the Falcon defense had a lapse of memory. Shortstop Wally Banks laid down a perfect bunt single to produce their opening counter.

In the second, Hansen and Kenny lashed back to back singles. Starting pitcher Fred Price flied out for one tally, and Herb Smolka garnered his first of two singles to produce the second one.

Wayne fought back into the lead with two in the sixth. John Henry and Ed Williams rapped out base hits to feature this splurge. They completed their scoring in the seventh as Snowden lined a two out single and Don Halverson bashed a triple. This torched an argument, as he didn't touch second base. Ultimately the umpires decided the run would count.

The Falcon third run came in the seventh as cleanup hitter, Fred Hansen poled a triple to deep left center. Dick Kenny tallied him with a double in the hole in right-center field.

Price pitched the first seven innings and gave up all the Wayne runs. Johnson hurled scoreless ball in the eighth and ninth, permitting two hits and a walk. He picked up the first win of the season.

Second Game

In the second game, Wayne caught up with starter Doug Webster in the eighth for seven runs. Paul Zdeb hurled a steady six hitter to produce the victory.

Kenny led the Falcons with three hits to duplicate his opening game feat. Halverson and Williams combined for three doubles to feature Wayne's attack. Their defense committed four errors, but they still rolled on to victory on the strength of their power.

Larry Hughes, Wayne Schake, and Jerry Schoonover gathered the other Falcon hits in defeat.

Bowling Green entertains Western Reserve in two games this weekend.

Dick Kenney sliding in third during the Falcon's opening game with Wayne University Monday.

Falcon Golfers Drop Season Openers; Face Wesleyan Today

Bowling Green will be after its first win of the season in golf this afternoon when they match games with Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. The Falcon Greensmen dropped their opening matches against Marshall and Cincinnati by one point each.

On March 6, Marshall defeated the locals 5½ to 6½ at the Guyan Country Club in Huntington, W. Virginia. Jack Stewart defeated Jim Dysinger and Gene Roach defeated Don Kepler. The only Falcons that won were Dick Rodney and Ed Brideau.

At Cincinnati on March 13, at the Clovernook Country Club Bowling Green lost 8½ to 9½. In singles games Dysinger and Rodney both won while Kepler and Brideau lost. In doubles Dysinger and Rodney combined efforts to win, but Kepler and Brideau were overpowered.

Although both matches were lost Coach Don Cunningham was quite pleased with the teams' performance. He pointed out that the squad had been only practicing for about a week because of bad weather and that the courses were unfamiliar.

The varsity is practicing regularly at the Bowling Green Country Club. Tomorrow the squad travels to Ohio University at Athens.

Religious Conference Set For April 29

The week end of April 29, the YMCA and YWCA will hold the Ohio area student Spring Conference at Camp Christian, near Magnetic Springs.

The theme will be "The Leaven or the Lump." Students interested in attending may sign up at the UCF House.

Today about 15 students left for a 2 week-end Methodist conference at Camp Indianola.

One Price Steller Would Like To Pay

Fred Price, ace of last year's pitching staff, will be back trying to have another successful season. Last year, Price compiled a brilliant 7-0 record despite top-flight competition. This included an almost perfect game against strong Western Michigan. Going into the seventh inning, not a single man from Western had gotten to first base, but then Ron Jackson, now playing first-base for the Chicago White Sox, delivered a clean hit.

Started At Vandalia-Butler

This, however, is only one of many outstanding performances which include three no-hitters, three one-hitters, and four two-hitters in a career that started at Vandalia-Butler High School.

He pitched for three years in high school and twice led his team to county-championships.

Price has also hurled for White-Alton Chevrolet in Dayton, which last year took the class A Dayton championship. His team then advanced to the Youngstown regional which included many teams from the eastern sector of this country. They were eliminated, but received great consolation when the team they beat in the Dayton finale, finished second in the national tournament. The BG ace pitched two shutouts this summer with White-Alton.

Price Is Junior

He is a junior this year and is majoring in industrial management and economics. He plans on going into the business world, but if the right offer comes might start out in a baseball career.

SPORTS ANNOUNCEMENT

For the remainder of the Spring sports season the tennis courts are reserved for team practice Monday through Friday from 4-6 p.m. and on Saturday from 2-4 p.m. Students will not be allowed to use the courts during these hours. Frank Miles, tennis coach, announced.

Michigan Netters Spoil Falcons' Initial Match

Bowling Green's tennis team, under the coaching of Frank Miles, lost to Michigan State Normal 7-2 in the April 18 meet.

Al Rava won three sets over Claude Wilbanks in the singles competition with the scores 6-3, 2-6 and 6-3. Ron Fulgenzi, Bob Schneider, Dave Young, Jerry Sullivan and Wayne West dropped matches to their opponents.

In the doubles Rava and Sullivan combined efforts to come from behind, after dropping the first set 0-6, winning with the scores 6-3 and 6-1. Young and West as well as Schneider and Fulgenzi dropped their sets.

Coach Miles rates Fulgenzi as his top player, on the basis of performance, with Schneider, Young,

Rava, Sullivan and West following in that order. Miles admits that his team is not as strong as he would like, but that with a lot of hard work the year can be successful.

SCIENCE MADE SIMPLE: NO. 3

Once again the makers of Philip Morris, men who are dedicated to the betterment of American youth, have consented to let me use this space, normally intended for levity, to bring you a brief lesson in science.

It is no new thing, this concern that the makers of Philip Morris feel for American youth. Youth was foremost in their minds when they fashioned their cigarette. They were aware that the palate of youth is keen and eager, awake to the subtle nuances of flavor. And so they made a gentle and clement smoke, a suave blending of temperate vintage tobaccos, a summery amalgam of the most tranquil and emollient leaf that their buyers could find in all the world. And then they designed their cigarette in two sizes, king-size and regular, and wrapped them in the convenient Snap-Open pack, and priced them at a figure that youth could afford, and made them available at every tobacco counter in the land.

That's what they did, the makers of Philip Morris, and I for one am glad.

The science that we take up today is called astronomy, from the Greek words astro meaning "sore" and nomos meaning "back." Sore backs were the occupational disease of the early Greek astronomers, and no wonder! They used to spend every blessed night lying on the damp ground and looking up at the sky, and if there's a better way to get a sore back, I'd like to hear about it. Especially in the moist Mediterranean area, where Greece is generally considered to be.

Lumbago and related disorders kept astronomy from becoming very popular until Galileo, a disbarred flenser of Perth, fashioned a home made telescope in 1924 out of three Social Security cards and an ordinary ice cube. What schoolboy does not know that stirring story—how Galileo stepped up to his telescope, how he looked heavenward, how his face filled with wonder, how he stepped back and whispered the words heard round the world: "L'etat, c'est moi!"

Well sir, you can imagine what happened then! William Jennings Bryan snatched Nell Gwynne from the shadow of the guillotine at Oslo; Chancellor Bismarck brought in four gushers in a single afternoon; Hal Newhouser was signed by the Hanseatic League; Crete was declared off limits to Wellington's entire army; and William Faulkner won the Davis Cup for his immortal Penrod and Sam.

But after a while things calmed down, and astronomers began the staggering task of naming all the heavenly bodies. First man to name a star was Sigafos of Mt. Wilson, and the name he chose was Betelgeuse, after his wife Betelgeuse Sigafos, prom queen at Michigan State College from 1919 to 1931.

Not to be outdone, Formfig of Yerkes Observatory named a whole constellation after his wife, Big Dipper Formfig, the famed dirt track racer. This started the custom of astronomers naming constellations after their wives—Capricorn, Cygni, Orion, Ursa Major, Canis Major, and so forth. (The Major girls, Ursa and Canis, both married astronomers, though Canis subsequently ran off with a drydock broker named Thwaite Daphnis.)

After naming all the heavenly bodies, the astronomers had a good long rest. Then, refreshed and brown as berries, they undertook the gigantic project of charting the heavens. Space is so vast that it is measured in units called "light-years." These are different from ordinary years in that they weigh a good deal less. This, of course, is only relative, since space is curved. As Einstein laughingly said, "E=mc²."

Well, I guess that covers astronomy pretty thoroughly. But before we leave this fascinating topic, let us answer one final question: Is there life on other planets?

The answer is a flat, unequivocal no. Recent spectroscopic studies have proved beyond a doubt that the atmosphere of the other planets is far too harsh to permit the culture of the delicate vintage tobaccos that go into Philip Morris Cigarettes... And who can live without Philip Morris?
